St Vincent de Paul: Christmas Appeal: A Whole School Effort! Please Read Carefully...

Christmas each year provides our school with a special opportunity to do something practical to lighten the load of others. By donating non-perishable food items to our local St Vincent de Paul Conference we will be supporting their efforts to provide hampers for families facing a financially challenging Christmas. Please follow this link to find out the information you need to support this very worthy cause. You will notice that each class is asked to donate a different item. Thank you for your support during this special time of giving!
